Dear Mr. Schultz:

Thank you for your continued cooperation in the processes reviewing your high school for use by the NCAA Initial-Eligibility Clearinghouse.

Based on the information you provided, a determination has been made that core courses and graduation from your high school may be used in the NCAA initial-eligibility certification process at this time. Please note that the review of high schools used in the initial-eligibility certification is an ongoing process, thus your high school may be subject to review at a future date.

Please also note that in addition to the review of high school academic credentials, a prospective student-athlete's individual academic credentials also may be subject to review in the event that irregularities in the student's academic record are found.

Please contact me should you have further questions.

Sincerely,

Jennifer S. Lane
